The Yorkshire North and East Methodist District Safeguarding Group is seeking new members

The Yorkshire North and East Methodist District Safeguarding Group is responsible for the promotion and implementation of effective safeguarding provision across all Methodist Churches within the Yorkshire North and East Methodist District. The group is currently seeking new members to contribute towards its work, which includes:

- Discussing programmes of awareness, training and ways of promoting Methodist safeguarding policies, guidance and good practice throughout the District;
- Providing support and guidance to the District Safeguarding Officer, including confidential advice and discussion about casework;
- Reporting to the Methodist District Policy Committee;
- Involvement in events and meetings including training events, regional conferences and meetings associated with safeguarding casework; and
- Convening quarterly District Safeguarding Group business meetings, which currently comprise lay and ordained colleagues with safeguarding experience or other relevant professional backgrounds and which are chaired by Mr Rod Young, a retired NHS Biochemist and Magistrate.

If you are interested in contributing towards this work then please email Siân Henderson (Yorkshire North and East District Administrator at admin@yorkshirenemethodist.org) to express your interest, outlining any relevant experience and background you might have in this area of work by Friday 22 February 2019.

Thank you

Mr Rod Young
