

OPOP OLD PLACES FOR OUR PEOPLE

WHAT WE KNOW
WHAT WE DO WELL

AND IT ISN'T WORKING...

THE VAST MAJORITY OF PEOPLE IN BRITAIN DO NOT GO TO CHURCH OF THOSE,
85 PER CENT SAY THEY ARE UNLIKELY TO DO SO

and yet so much focus in mission seems to go on trying to do church better to attract people to it

TRANSFORMING

in today's tabula rasa culture

NEW PLACES FOR NEW PEOPLE IN A TABULA RASA CONTEXT

Following in the footsteps of the Acts of the Apostles

- Having confidence in God
- Being culturally relevant, proud and visible as followers of Jesus
- Believing Jesus can transform people's lives
- Instinctively putting this belief into practice when encountering someone in need
- Holding nothing back
- Being extravagantly generous and unexpectedly kind
- Being inclusive: God's generosity and kindness are for everyone
- Intentionally striving to bring others to faith and growing disciples
- Trusting that God's intention and purpose exceeds our expectations

SOME QUESTIONS:

- How do you respond?
- What is God saying to you?
- Is God stirring something within you?

Jonny Baker's questions:

- What is the dissatisfaction that bugs you?
- What is the passion you carry?
- What talents do you have?

New Places for New People

I sense God stirring me to explore a new 'way of being' as a follower of Jesus.

I'd therefore like to become a part of the new NPNP network so that I can, with others, start to see what the next steps might be.
